Annual Conference

Friday

22nd May 2009

Friends Meeting House

173 Euston Road

London

NW1 2BJ

Supported by:

Qualifications and Curriculum Authority

WHY YOU NEED TO ATTEND

Who should attend:

College principals, senior managers, equality and diversity managers, curriculum managers, college chaplains, representatives of faith communities and delegates from FE stakeholder institutions.

Why your college/organisation should be represented:

The conference will provide an opportunity to hear presentations from government, civil servants and leaders of FE stakeholder institutions on employability and the need for employability skills and knowledge to include elements of faith and cultural awareness. The afternoon session and workshops will have a specific focus on 14-19 diplomas and the place within them of spiritual, moral, and cultural education, led by representatives from awarding bodies and diploma development partnerships.

How your college can benefit:

The conference will provide up to date information about the conference themes and the development of 14-19 diplomas through presentations, questions and answer sessions and discussion, involving delegates from other institutions, our speakers and workshop facilitators
